WASHINGTON.

THE ARREARS OF PENSION BILL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—There is much opposition at the Treasury to the bill granting arrears of pensions, and officials there predict that the President will veto it. Secretary Sherman is of the opinion that the Treasury will not be able to meet the demand on it if the bill becomes a law.

VIOLATIONS OF THE THIRTEENTH, FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH AMENDMENTS.

The causes of Democratic Senators decided to report a resolution as a substitute for Edmunds peace and good will resolutions, declaring that Congress can only take cognizance of violations of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments when committed by states and not by individuals, and that it is exclusively the duty of the legal officers of the Government to take cognizance of such violations when committed by individuals.

GENERAL NEWS.

The administration is considering a reorganization of civil service in the South. Marshal Pitkin's reinstatement is probable.

The House Committee on Coinage has decided to report a bill intended to equalize the double metal standard by making it 16 of silver to 1 of gold, instead of 15½ to 1 as at present. The report on the metric system will be ready on Wednesday. It is very comprehensive.

CONTESTED CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE AT A LATE DAY.

Partisan Brass of a Partisan House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The House Committee on Elections have concluded their labors for the present Congress, and at their next call will report the cases yet undisposed of, and ask immediate action.

The contests which have already been reported and acted upon are those in California and Colorado, seating the Democrats; the three in Louisiana, seating the Democrats; the Massachusetts and Mississippi, seating the Democrats, and the three cases of McDowell (D.) vs. Williams (R.,) of Oregon; O'Cooner (D.) vs. Kenner (R.) of South Carolina; and Henton (D.) vs. Jorgensen (R.) of Virginia, in which the three Republicans were awarded the seats. In the two South Carolina cases of Richardson against Rainey, and Tighlman against Smalls, the reports have been ready for six months, declaring that there was no election.

The four cases just disposed of and ready to be acted upon are the Missouri case of Frost vs. Metcalfe, in favor of Metcalfe, Republican; the Pennsylvania case of Nutting vs. Reilly, seating the Democrat; the Alabama case of Harralson (colored) vs. Shelley, seating Shelley, Democrat; and the Florida case of Fenley vs. Bisbee, seating Bisbee, Democrat.

A glance at the political complexion of the reports of the committees, shows that out of the ten cases decided in the House, seven were favorable to the Democratic and three to the Republican claimants. In the two South Carolina cases, which showed an indisputable result favorable to the Republicans, the issue was evaded by declaring the election void, and in the four unreported cases the decision of the committee in three is favorable to the Democrats and in one to the Republicans, which may regarded as a reasonable proportion for Democratic purposes.

The report in the case of Nutting vs. Reilly of the Schulkill District Pa., the sitting member, Democratic, will be submitted in two weeks. Colonel Nutting was represented by Captain Broome of Schulkill, who will be the contestant of Ryon, Democrat, in the House in the next Congress. The report in the case of Frost vs. Metcalfe is now being prepared by Judge Harris. It is favorable to Metcalfe, and will be submitted in February.

WINTER AMUSEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

A Novel Skating Rink.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A new and popular centre of attraction to the pleasure-seekers of the capital during the winter months has been fairly inaugurated in the Washington roller-skating rink, which occupies a location in the most fashionable quarter of the city. The building specially erected for the purpose is a commodious brick structure, not unattractive in its architectural features.

The skating bed, which is laid in the best quality of Trinidad asphalt, was put down under the special supervision of Dr. Filbert of Philadelphia, and measures nearly 18,000 square feet, and gives an ample space for the evolutions of the skaters, and the surface of which rivals ice in its smoothness and lack of friction. Around this bed runs a raised platform, forming an amphitheatre capable of accommodating upwards of a thousand spectators.

The entire management of the establishment is in the hands of Mr. George A. Kelly of Philadelphia, and the eminent success which has attended the enterprise is due entirely to his energy, business tact, and a happy faculty of pleasing all who patronize the rink. The rink is open every afternoon and evening (except Sunday), a fine band of music being in attendance every evening.

On Monday and Friday evenings the attendance is always larger, as these nights have been elected by the members of the diplomatic corps for a sort of relaxation on rollers from the weighty affairs of state. On these evenings Sir Edward and Lady Thornton and daughters, the Brazilian minister and other representatives of the different legations, with their families, are present. The representatives of China and Japan have also developed a remarkable proficiency in this healthy and graceful amusement, and are always present on these occasions.

Our own notables are well represented in the justices of the Supreme Court, especially Justices Strong and Harlow, the general of the army, navy and army officers, senators and representatives, accompanied by their families. Many of these ladies are graceful and accomplished skaters while those of the gentlemen who venture upon the rollers are remarkable either for the graceful ease or the sober earnestness with which they participate in the fun of the hour.

Mr. Plimpton, the inventor of the roller skate, and who is interested in 900 rinks in this country and Europe, has been here on a visit, and pronounces the skating bed of this rink the finest he ever saw. His daughter, who accompanied him, created quite a sensation by an exhibition of her remarkable skill on these skates, which has had the effect to greatly stimulate the interest of Washington belles in this graceful and pleasing recreation.

LATEST WASHINGTON NEWS

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS MEET TO DECIDE UPON A POLICY.

A Consultation Concerning the "Peace and Good Will" Resolutions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The Democratic Senators held a full caucus this morning and it was decided that when Edmunds calls up his "Peace and Good Will" resolutions that Thurman should offer as a substitute a resolution declaring that Congress can only take cognizance of violations of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments when they are committed by states, and that the legal officers of the Government only have cognizance of such violations when committed by individuals. These resolutions it will be remembered declare again the faith of Congress in the Constitutional amendments. Senator Thurman states that he has been examining the record and has found that within the last ten years the Senate has said "Credo" to these amendments at least half a dozen times, and he proposes to read Mr. Edmunds the record when the matter is called up.

There was a unanimous opinion that out of deference to the sensitiveness of the members of the late Confederacy the test oath ought to be repealed and it is understood that the repeal will be crowded through Congress.

A private caucus of a few of the Democratic Senators was held in the room of the Committee on Private Land Claims, several days ago, which was attended by Thurman, McDonald, Kernan and a few other Northern Senators and those who generally do the planning for their party in Congress. It is a noticeable fact that no Southern Senators were present, and while the circumstances may have been entirely accidental it caused comment and stimulated curiosity as to the topic of consultation. It now appears after the proceedings have had a chance to filter through the pledges of secrecy that the question of an early session, the business of the present session and the action of the Democrats upon Edmund's resolutions—the so-called "peace and good will" resolutions—were the three topics under consideration. There does not seem to have been any conclusion reached, and it is claimed that the consultation was entirely informal. There is a decided difference of opinion about the propriety of organizing the Forty-sixth Senate this spring. Those who have friends they want to elect to the principal offices of the Senate are anxious to have the organization completed as soon as possible, while such men as Thurman, Kernan and Wallace think it would look a little better to the country if the new Senate waited until the regular session before distributing the spoils.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

A Loss of $250,000 by the Burning of a Philadelphia Woolen Mill.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20.—A fire occurred this morning at the woollen mill of John Brown & Sons, at the corner Eighth and Tasker streets. The entire contents were destroyed, the bare walls of the building alone remaining. The loss on the building and machinery is about $250,000, and is covered by insurance. The origin of the flames, which were first discovered on the third floor, is unknown. Several smaller fires have occurred at the same place within the last few years.

Explosion in a Boston Drug Store.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—There was a gas explosion this morning in the drug store of Weeks & Potter at No. 360 Washington street, the cause of which is unknown. The amount of damage is probably large as there was a large stock of valuable chemicals at the spot where the explosion occurred. A dense smoke penetrated to the upper floors, causing considerable damage to the stock of fancy and toilet goods. The woodwork in the front part of the basement was charred and will have to be built anew.

The Rev. Dr. S. I. Prime relates of Dr. Cummings, the former pastor of St. Stephen's Roman Catholic Church in New York, that one day as he was near his end, in parting with a friend who had called to see him, he said: "Come to the funeral; the music will be splendid."

PERSONALS.

.....George Child, of the firm of Child & Co., grocers, of Taunton, a prominent citizen, died Saturday night.

.....Rev. George H. Hepworth proposes to resign unless something is done toward paying the debt of his church.

.....The Princess Louise has taken to snow-shoeing, and spends a couple of hours each afternoon in this exercise.

.....The betrothal of Minute Hauk to Ernst Wartig is announced. He is an Austrian, and made Hauk's acquaintance in Berlin.

.....Mother Mary of the Sacred Heart, Superioress of the Gray Nuns of Ottowa and head of the order in Canada and the United States, has died.

.....Gen. Noyes, our Minister to France, entertains more frequently than any of his predecessors, except Gen. Dix, and his diplomatic dinner parties are said to be important features of the season in Paris.

.....General Sherman, accompanied by General Van Vliet, will leave Washington Thursday for Florida, and subsequently make a tour of inspection to the fortifications at Pensacola, Mobile and New Orleans.

.....The Empress Eugenie is described as leading the quietest and most monotonous of lives at Chiselhurst. She prays, she drives, she embroiders, sometimes she plays whist in the evening; one day is almost exactly like another. Her food is simple, and she talks little at table, but always looks pleasant and interesting. She is still handsome, her beautiful golden hair shining royally above her plain black dress.

.....General Cassius M. Clay has just given to the Kentucky Historical Society of Louisville, Ky., two oil paintings, from life, of the Emperor Alexander II. of Russia and the Empress, by the European artist, Winterhalter. He has also presented three hundred other rare and interesting articles, including books, pamphlets, and manuscripts relating to Kentucky history, autograph letters from men of distinction in America, Europe and Asia and memorials associated with his long term as Minister at St. Petersburg.

.....It is now estimated that the money which Burroughs, the treasurer of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, made away with will amount to $23,000 lent to friends and $3,000 overdrawn on his personal account, all of which his bondsmen can make good. His salary was about $3,000 a year. His friends deny any criminal intent, and aver that he was only foolish in lending money to responsible persons. The officers of the road, on the contrary, say that he has been living fast of late and has squandered considerable money.

.....Mrs. Fiske, wife of the late manager of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, writes to the St. Louis Republican about the salaries of Col. Mapleson's principal singers. She says that Gerster is singing for $900 a week, under a contract for five years, made two years ago. Gerster had hardly become famous when this bargain was made, and could probably now, if free, get as much per night as she receives per week. Hauk gets $200 a week, an advance of $75 on what she was paid in London. She is said by Mrs. Fiske to be dissatisfied with her wages and struggling to get free. Campanini, the tenor, is the best paid member of the company, receiving $3000 a month. According to this authority, Frapolli and Pisani get $800 each a month; Sinico, $1200 a month; Del Puente, $150 a week; Labiache, $100 a week; and the total cost of presenting opera in the Academy was about $2000 a night.

"OLD IRONSIDES."

It is pleasant to know that our good old ship, the Constitution, was got off the sands yesterday and towed to Portsmouth. The cable tells us that the frigate has sustained no apparent injury. The point at which she stranded, which is close to St. Alban's Head, county of Dorset, England, is a mere shingle of sands, broken by no rocks, and the ship thus escaped one, and usually the greatest, element of danger. The Constitution was very deep aft, drawing thirty-two feet, but her guns and anchors being taken out the second attempt of the tugs to pull her off was successful. That this famous vessel should be got out of difficulties by Englishmen and English craft is an interesting episode to add to her eventful history. As most readers know, the Constitution is nominally a very old ship. She was built, that is to say, in 1794, being, with the Victory, Nelson's flagship, one of the very few men-of-war now afloat that are older than the century. But of the original "Old Ironsides" not much remains after her successive repairs and renovations. It was proposed some years ago to break her up, but a general cry of indignation made the department hold its hand. She was last fitted out as a school-ship, and, in this capacity, having made her familiar way across the Atlantic, met her present mishap on the coast of England. The incident is a poetic one and is sure, we may predict, to find celebrity in verse. At any rate it will now be in order for patriotic humorists to say that "Old Ironsides" has come too often into collision with England and come off with flying colors to leave room for doubt that in this last instance she would fail to exemplify her ancient prosperity.—[N. Y. Post.

LIBERTY IN GERMANY.

One might write on this subject after the model of the famous chapter on "Snakes" in the work on Iceland, and with a very near approach to truth. It would not, of course, be absolutely accurate to say that there is no liberty in Germany; but it is true that reaction and repression are the keys to the present policy of the empire, and that liberty of speech and of the press is so far denied that no man of liberal tendencies can write or say what he thinks with any sense of security against speedy arrest and grievous punishment. The anti-socialist bill was passed on the 19th of October. In the ensuing ten weeks, till the close of the year 1878, the government suppressed 189 clubs and 263 publications, and expelled 62 persons from the empire. Thus 519 cases were passed upon and the judgment carried into execution in the space of 73 days after the enactment of the law—an average of seven a day. It would be a mistake to suppose that all the offenders thus summarily dealt with were socialists. The government also suppressed ultra-montane papers in Alsace-Lorraine, and visited with its sudden fury men who had casually given utterance to mildly liberal sentiments which the Imperial authorities construed into "insults to majesty." Not long ago a Frankfort newspaper was fined heavily for having published a squib in the form of a fable, in which Prince Bismarck was represented as a schoolmaster, constantly asking for new whips with which to beat his pupils, whom he could not keep in order. This was an "insult to majesty."—[Boston Advertiser.

Poma Bai, the brilliant young Mahratta lady, whose profound knowledge of Sanscrit literature and facility in original composition have given her a recognized position among modern pandits, is now only twenty-two years old. She began to learn Sanscrit with her mother's help at the early age of four years. She has lately travelled, in company with a brother, throughout the length and breadth of the peninsula. At Calcutta she was welcomed by a party of Bengali and English ladies, to whom she exhibited her extraordinary power of improvisation in slokas, or verses composed in accordance with the elaborate rules of Sanscrit poetry. In a set speech, also in Sanscrit, she showed that neither seclusion of women nor early marriage existed in the early days of Hindoo history.

Williain Hayward of Providence committed suicide, Sunday, by taking poison. He got discouraged on account of ill health and no work.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

SUFFERING FOR A LIFE TIME.

Persons afflicted with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it, to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

JANUARY, 1879!

WITHIN the first week of the year all bills due the undersigned on January 1st, will be sent for payment. It is of much importance to him that all these bills, however small, should be paid in the early part of the month. To the select few—scattered through every social rank and all degrees of pecuniary ability—who make the payment of their obligations a point of honor, he presents thanks in advance, hoping that they may so infuse the mass of mankind with the spirit of their honorable ways that shabbiness of principle and disregard of honor and truth may disappear from the earth.

The Newport Daily News and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon, (Sundays excepted,) at the News building, 13 Church street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning, and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, the latest markets, and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large, 32 column paper, and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 00 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the WHOLE YEAR is paid STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra, and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both the News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1879.

It is denied that Senator Conkling spoke of Mr. Hayes as the "so-called President."

A Congregational Church at Boston Highlands was burned yesterday. Loss $50,000. Insurance $35,000.

There was no quorum in the Senate of the General Assembly yesterday. The requisite number were present in the House but as there was nothing to do the result was all the same.

Gen. Garfield is credited at Washington with having consented to accept the Republican nomination for the Ohio governorship, and the politicians of that state expect the Democrats to re-nominate Gov. Bishop.

Louisiana politicians do have some vague notions of right and wrong, after all. The House has passed, 63 to 20, a bill for the repeal of the gambling concern known as the Louisiana lottery. It is regarded as very doubtful, however, whether the Senate can climb to such a dizzy height of virtue.

Old Virginia is still talking about the invasion of her state's rights. She does not seem to remember that the war settled some questions in that line and that the decision was quite averse to southern claims. It is time the Bourbons learned something even if they never forget what they once knew.

It is given out that the seat of Roscoe Conkling will be contested in the next Congress on the ground that the present Legislature of New York is an illegal body, there having been no re-apportionment before its members were elected, as required by the last constitution of the state. They insist that this question will be raised when Mr. Conkling first appears to be sworn in, and that his case will be sent to the committee on privileges and election, to await their action. As the Democrats will have a majority they can do as they have a mind to about it and can keep the case pending a long time.

Making United States Senators is just now the order of the day. At Albany Roscoe Conkling was unanimously nominated by the New York Republicans last night. The Democrats nominated the Hon. William Dorsheimer. The Indiana Democrats have nominated D. W. Voorhees for both the long and short terms, and the Republicans have selected General Ben. Harrison for the long term and Godlove S. Orth for the short term. The Pennsylvania Democrats have made choice of Hiester Clymer. The Illinois Democrats have nominated General J. C. Black. The Wisconsin Republicans are still balloting for a candidate with no immediate prospect of success.

There are a good many demagogues in Congress but none quite the equal of Hendrick B. Wright of Pennsylvania. His latest movement is a proposition for the government to loan $500 at three per cent. interest to people who desire to go West and engage in farming. They are to be allowed to pay this in easy installments extending over a term of years. This arrangement would do one thing at least. It would make room for an army of office holders to make these small loans, collect the interest and in the end foreclose the mortgages. This would be a pretty business for a great government like ours that would then be engaged in borrowing money to lend again.

It is a curious fact that when a municipal or legislative body sets out with great professions of economy and reform, they almost invariably go to the opposite extreme and become more wasteful and extravagant than their predecessors. The present Congress is no exception to the general rule. Under the plea of saving the people's money it pries here and peeps there, cuts off a female copyist in this and that bureau, and then passes a bill to give millions in back pensions to soldiers, having voted thousands of dollars to investigating partisan committees and local subsidies. And this, too, when the country is deeply in debt, the taxes onerous, and business at a stand still.

In the United States Senate yesterday, a bill was introduced by Mr. Cockrell of Missouri looking to the abolition of national banks. A substitute for Mr. Edmunds's resolution regarding the validity of the thirteenth, fourteen and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution was presented by the Democrats, in which they reaffirm their old-time state rights doctrines. The bill to amend the patent laws was further considered, but no decision was reached. In the house a large number of bills were introduced and referred, and the bill to provide for the settlement of all outstanding claims against the District of Columbia, and conferring the jurisdiction thereof on the court of claims, was passed.

WINTER ON THE OCEAN.

People on the land during the recent storms can form some idea of the condition of things at sea. The reports that come from those on board steamers and sailing vessels show that the past few weeks have been especially tempestuous. The Algeria of the Cunard line has just arrived at New York and one of the officers gives a reporter an account of the voyage. He says "Talk about storms! They were simply fearful. We left Liverpool on the 4th instant with a fair complement of saloon passengers and a heavy cargo of merchandise. After losing sight of the mainland in the evening the sky became overcast with heavy clouds of inky blackness, and a cold, biting wind from the northwest set in, turning the spray into ice as it struck the ship and rendering it perilous for the sailors to go aloft, but they did so when called upon. Our progress westward was very slow, owing to the weather being in our teeth and to the fact that the waves ran mountain high. After feeling our way for a week, at length on the 11th instant, while the ship was laboring heavily, she was struck by a tremendous wave which broke over the bows. At the time First Officer Cotter and another of the ship's company were standing on the bridge. They saw at a glance what was coming and yelled for the men on the deck to get below or secure safe grips on the traffrail or the lines connecting the rigging. A second later the iron bow sunk into the great green mountain of water which came roaring and foaming aft and I thought it was all over with us. The ship trembled from stem to stern and after what seemed to me an age came out right side up and threw the water from her like a duck. When we made an examination we discovered that our fore skylight, the port anchor, the starboard side of the bridge, the starboard midship lifeboat and the iron stanchions of the deck were crushed in as though they had been cockle shells. Luckily for Cotter and the other officer on the bridge the wave missed them, otherwise they would have been swept overboard and perished. The sailors had time enough to get out of the way and were saved. Captain Watson was also a witness to the advance of this wave and exhibited great coolness, saving himself by the skin of his teeth. The terror of the passengers below is described as almost beyond description. They soon recovered their usual cheerfulness, but were constantly afterwards on the lookout for another of the troublesome visitors. On the 12th the gale moderated considerably but the cold continued. When two days from port we passed through a moderate gale, but weathered it firmly."

THE SONG OF THE CAMP.

[Bayard Taylor's more recent poetical works have been in a grave style, and by them chiefly he is known to younger readers. Yet he has written many lyrics worthy of a higher place in American literature, among which is the following:]

"Give us a song!" the soldiers cried,
The outer trenches guarding,
When the heated guns of the camps allied
Grew weary of bombarding.

The dark Redan, in silent scoff,
Lay, grim and threatening, under;
And the tawny mound of the Malakoff
No longer belched its thunder.

There was a pause. A guardsman said:
"We storm the forts to-morrow;
Sing while we may, another day—
Will bring enough of sorrow."

They lay along the battery's side,
Below the smoking cannon;
Brave hearts from Severn and from Clyde,
And from the banks of Shannon,

They sang of love, and not of fame,
Forgot was Britain's glory;
Each heart recalled a different name,
But all sang "Annie Lawrie."

Voice after voice caught up the song,
Until its tender passion
Rose like an anthem rich and strong,
Their battle-eve confession.

Dear girl, her name he dared not speak,
But as the song grew louder,
Something upon the soldier's cheek
Washed off the stains of powder.

Beyond the darkening ocean burned
The bloody sunset's embers,
While the Crimean valleys learned
How English love remembers.

And once again a fire of hell
Rained on the Russian quarters,
With scream of shot, and burst of shell,
And bellowing of the mortars.

And Irish Nora's eyes are dim
For a singer dumb and gory;
And English Mary mourns for him
Who sang of "Annie Lawrie."

Sleep, soldiers! still in honored rest
Your truth and valor wearing;
The bravest are the tenderest—
The loving are the daring.

They need a Butler down in Rhode Island to stir up the dominant party to at least a pretense of reform in the Legislature. As it is, that body appears to be conducting itself like a moot court. No important business is likely to burden the members, yet they reject with high scorn the suggestion that it would be wise and statesmanlike under the circumstances to set an early day for adjournment and return to inoffensive citizenship. The House devoted its Friday's session almost entirely to eulogizing a member detained at home by an accident, whose absence it would seem, according to one of the eulogists, was especially to be deplored as he was the only legislator capable of giving his associates something useful to think and talk about. The suggestion of the witty member to advertise for something to do was no more popular, however, than the effort to limit the session's length. Both houses voted down resolutions looking to an early adjournment, and the solons will keep on wasting the people's money in waiting for something to turn up.—[Springfield Republican.

Mr. Richard Grant White contributes to the February Atlantic a most entertaining paper on "London Streets." A record of the observations made by so keen and clever a writer in his long, desultory rambles about the great city is sure to be well worth reading. Nothing can be better in its way than the description of the little shop where vases "quite hin the Rennysawnce style" were sold, and the proprietors thereof.

It is a singular fact that the demand for Welsh books and periodicals is quite large in the United States, and that one weekly paper printed in that language has a circulation of 8000 copies and a good line of advertising. This is T. J. Griffith's Y Drych, published in Utica, N. Y. Its motto apparently is "Newyddiadur Conedlaethol at Wasanaeth Cenedl y Cymry yn y Talaethau Unedig."—[N. Y. Tribune.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Odd Fellows' lecture tonight.

—Mayor Bedlow is in New York.

—It is several weeks since a dramatic entertainment took place at the Opera House.

—It is no uncommon sight now-a-days to see women on the street under the influence of liquor.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sherman, who were here until late in the season, are at Pau, France.

—Messrs. Anthony Stewart & Son are occupying the stable built on the site of the one destroyed by fire.

—One thousand sleighs, by count, passed one point on Broadway yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock.

—Rhode Island Lodge of Odd Fellows has materially increased in membership since the erection of the new building.

—The snow on the side streets should be levelled. At present it is almost impossible for two vehicles to pass each other.

—The Rev. H. J. Van Dyke, Jr., will be present at the Wednesday evening meeting at the United Congregational Church.

—Action was taken last night looking towards the transfer of the Touro fund, now nearly $30,000, to the direct control of the City Council.

—A vessel left here on Sunday and her captain neglected to pay his pilotage. He will find a lawyer's note awaiting him upon his arrival in Philadelphia.

—The subject for the Bible reading at the Second Baptist Church this evening will be "The Tears of the Bible." Service begins at 7:15. Everybody is welcome.

—Mrs. E. P. Ludlum of Baltimore will during the week take possession of her villa on Marine avenue, which she recently purchased from Mr. Thatcher M. Adams.

—Lieutenant G. A. Converse, U. S. N., who was an instructor at the Torpedo Station for several years, has arrived home after a three years' cruise in the Mediterranean in the sloop-of-war Marion.

—There was some plain talk in regard to police matters at the City Hall last night, Marshal Read was on hand to defend the present custom of detailing the night policemen. It will be productive of much good.

—By the new city ordinance the day policemen are to go on duty at 7 A. M., and are not to go off duty until 6 P. M. The night police are to go on duty at 6 P. M., and remain until relieved by the day policemen.

—Col. Samuel R. Honey has been elected Junior Vice Commander of the Rhode Island Department of the Grand Army of the Republic. At the annual meeting in Providence yesterday Charles E. Lawton Post of this city was well represented.

—The only criminal complaint before the Justice Court this morning, was one against Patrick Welsh for maliciously breaking the windows in the store of John Moher, and he was found guilty and fined six dollars and costs, and in default of the payment thereof, he was committed to jail by Officer Garnett.

—Capt. Hammond and Officer Albro arrested Jacob P. Kemp and Frank Smith, seamen employed on board of the fishing schooner Nettie G. Rowe, of New Bedford, which went ashore on Brenton's Reef Monday morning. They left here in the vessel on Sunday, during the absence of the captain, Charles D. Manchester, of Tiverton, at his home in that town, against the permission of the captain who was averse to fishing on the Sabbath. The prisoners took on board another hand and proceeded to the fishing grounds. They were returning home with 1400 pounds of codfish when during the snow squall of Monday morning they went ashore on Brenton's Reef as before stated. They landed and walked to town for the purpose of securing assistance. The revenue cutter as well as Capt. Waters the wrecker went to her assistance, but no signs were visible of the vessel and it is supposed that she either sunk at high water or was driven to sea. The keeper of the schooner, R. A. Nelson, was at his house on Bridge street when the pair stole the vessel. The loss is a severe one to the owner.

THE STONE BRIDGE.

There appears to be some trouble in the matter of the "Stone Bridge," which is supported by the five towns of Newport county. Some months ago, fishing steamer Joseph Church, in passing through the draw struck, at low tide, one of the stones of the abutment which was projecting, and which had apparently been overlooked when the bridge was last repaired. At least this is the explanation now given by Commissioner Skiff. The result of this accident is that the several towns are called upon to pay bills, amounting in all to $427.54. Mayor Bedlow, has consulted with City Solicitor Peckham in reference to the matter, and it is the opinion of the latter, that there should be a very rigid examination made into the merits of the case before the bills are paid.

THE GRAND ARMY.—At a meeting of the Encampment of the Department of Rhode Island held in Providence, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

Commander—Henry R. Barker, of Slocum Post, No. 10.

Senior Vice Commander—Charles C. Gray, of Prescott Post, No. 1.

Junior Vice Commander—Samuel R. Honey, of Charles E. Lawton Post.

Medical Director—Dr. Lorenzo Traver, of Prescott Post.

Chaplain—Rev. J. J. Woolley, of Tower Post.

Council of Administration—C. B. Stanton of Budlong Post, Wm. H. Turner of Rodman Post, Edward W. Hamilton of Tower Post, Wm. J. Crossley of Prescott Post, M. J. Higgins of Arnold Post.

Delegate to National Encampment—Benj. L. Hall, Prescott Post; Alternate, J. A. Cravot, Ives Post. Delegate at Large, Edw. Thayer, Tower Post; Alternate, Wm. F. Hutchinson, Arnold Post.

CLARENCE COOK AND THE CATHEDRAL LOT.

One of our readers sends us the following article from the N. Y. World in reputation of the statements of Clarence Cook in the current number of the Atlantic, which we publish with pleasure:

Mr. Clarence Cook, in an article entitled The New Cathedral in New York" in the February number of the Atlantic Monthly, says of the site of the cathedral that "for the consideration of one dollar the Archbishop (Hughes) of New York became possessor of the deed for the whole square bounded" and the context implies that the Archbishop so acquired this property in 1858, the year of the laying of the cornerstone of the cathedral. And for this paltry consideration, Mr. Clarence Cook says, "the city was jockeyed out of the finest site on the island by a crafty and unscrupulous priest playing upon the political hopes of as base a lot of men as ever got the government of a great city into their power." All this fine writing might have been saved if Mr. Clarence Cook, before preparing his article for the Atlantic, had read a statement of the transfer of the property which appeared in the World, December 4th, 1878, carefully written from the city records. A brief summary of that article makes evident the following: That the city had no title whatever in the property after November 12th, 1829, when the city deeded it for $5,500 to Francis Cooper who by deed of November 30th 1829, conveyed it to the trustees of St. Patrick's Cathedral and the trustees of St. Peter's Church. The half belonging to St Peter's as decided by a partition suit in the Supreme Court in 1852, was in that year sold at auction for the benefit of the creditors of St. Peter's Church, and was bought by the Cathedral trustees, who already owned the other half, for the sum of $59,500.

FALL RIVER.

The Herald says that Rev. Mr. Fitch, the Episcopal rector, has just been engaged in a speculation that will be of good to the denomination of which he is a worthy representative. Seeing an opportunity, he caused to be purchased for him the old turnpike school house on Pleasant street, and has contracted for its removal to a site a short distance from its present location, and has also arranged for its repair and conversion into a chapel, to seat three hundred people. The total cost of this work will be about $350, and he will have a chapel which he could not have had built for $1500.

TROUBLE IN THE COAL REGION.

The situation at the mines looks more alarming now than it has at any time since the long strike of 1875. No more collieries have struck, but there are many threats made, and an uneasy feeling is observable everywhere. The Reading Company's men threaten to strike for their wages, which are two months in arrears. Some of the miners employed by individual operators in the Shamokin region are out because of a proposed reduction of wages, and it seems that a strike is threatened in the Luzerne region, but for what object is not known.

The real cause, however, is to be found in the secret organization known as the "Knights of Labor," which has been trying for nearly a year to foment disturbance, and it is intimated now that a general strike, to involve the whole anthracite coal field, is imminent. At the meetings of miners held at Girardville on Thursday night it was resolved "that it was necessary, for the protection of those working in the anthracite coal region, that they combine throughout the whole anthracite coal field, and act together for mutual benefit," and also, "that the hand of fellowship that has been extended by the men of Luzerne County be accepted, and that measures be taken for intelligent co-operation. The officers of the Reading Company say that they do not think the strike in the Girardville district will extend any further. They expect to finish paying November wages at the collieries by next Saturday, and will then immediately begin paying December wages. It is feared, however, that next week will bring further trouble.—[Am. Exchange.

THE HOWARD ASSOCIATION'S REPORT.

The Chicago Times of Friday last fills seventeen of its columns with the report of the Howard Association of New Orleans for the year just closed, reviewing the labors of the organization during the late epidemic, giving the particulars, the progress of the plague, the number of people attacked and their nationality, with tables showing the amount of money received and the sources whence it was derived. The report is very interesting and shows in an admirable manner the excellent discipline and organization of this association. The total amount of money received by the association was $383,449. Of this sum $82,639 came from New York City, $29,862 from Philadelphia, $26,764 from Boston, $23,024 from Chicago, and about $20,675 from San Francisco. Sums ranging from $7,000 to $460 were received from twenty-two other cities (the names of which are given by the report). From other parts of the United States $117,807 were received. From Liverpool and London came $7,875, from Paris and other parts of France, $4,780, and from Havana $1,000 were received. The report states that on September 12 so large had been the receipts of the association, and the advices from the prominent cities in the North, East and West showed such continued and overflowing generosity on the part of the people, that notice was given that no further contributions need be sent to the association. But the ravages of the fever after this date so increased, and the demands upon the association were so great, that it was compelled once more to call upon the generous public for further aid, and this call was answered in a manner which not only enabled the association to discharge all its obligations but to make something like an adequate compensation to the physicians who had voluntarily given their services in behalf of the afflicted city.

GLEANINGS AND GOSSIP.

The alumni of Dartmouth College will have their annual dinner at the Revere House, Boston, on Wednesday evening.

Numerous earthquake shocks in Sicily have been followed by an eruption of thick, hot mud from a lot of craters which have opened at the foot of Mt. Etna.

The Mapleson Opera Company will begin a second season at the Boston Theatre on the 7th of April. They will remain one week, and will sail direct from Boston to Liverpool in a steamer chartered for their special use.

The Troy (N. Y.) ministers speak up boldly against unnecessary expense at funerals, such as the exhibition of flowers and distribution of crape and gloves, and resolve to make their part of the service brief and simple.

The annual dinner of the New York Yacht Club will occur at Delmonico's in a few weeks, and the decorations will be of the usual appropriate character. The club's program for next summer will be an unusually interesting one.

Susan Zeutmeyer, a Lebanon (Pa.) milkmaid, laughed so heartily when a cow upset the herdsman who was trying to milk, that Susan dislocated her jaw, so that she could not shut her mouth, but had to walk home with it open. She could not speak to tell them what was the matter when she got there, but luckily a doctor was visiting her sick father and he soon set Susan's jaws wagging again.

The past year has been a poor one for the oil men, for petroleum was $2 a barrel a year ago and has gradually declined to about half that now, while the stock on hand of 3,000,000 barrels, with which 1878 began, has been increased one-half. The oil region produced about 15,188,015 barrels during the year, of which about two-thirds were shipped abroad, a considerable falling off from the exports in 1877.

The next season of Italian operas which Boston people are to enjoy is that of the Strakosch company, which begins at the Boston Theatre February 3, lasting two weeks. Among the leading members of the troupe are Clara Louise Kellogg, Annie Louise Cary, Mlle Lotta, Charles R. Adams, Signor Pantaleoni, Signor Lazarini, and other well-known artists, while his chorus and orchestra are said to be large, well drilled and in every way efficient.

On the coast of Florida, thirty miles from land, there is a lighthouse, the keeper of which is a young man who sought the place for opportunity to pursue his studies. But he is evidently getting lonesome. In a letter to the department after enumerating his various wants, needles, thread, stationery, etc, he concludes with the suggestion that perhaps the deparment could furnish him a wife. Doubtless the secretary of the treasury could supply his demand without any expense.

ICE AND SNOW IN THE SOUTH.

A Montgomery (Ala.) letter to the Philadelphia Times says—The edge of winter has lapped over and covered the hills, lagoons and pine barrens of the "sunny South" with a mantle of snow, and for the first time in a generation the natives of the Gulf States have enjoyed the luxury and novelty of a snowballing bout. It is impossible to present an adequate description of the excitement produced in South Georgia and upper Florida when Sunday morning revealed the unwonted scene. At Jacksonville and along the St. John's river the storm took the form of sleet, covering every exposed object with a coating of ice and rendering the streets impassable. The hotel men viewed the scene with alarm, and the invalid guests gazed from their windows despairingly, for their fancied security from chill blasts was gone. Those interested in orange culture at all points north of Pilatka have grave and well-grounded fears for the safety of not only the fruit now on the trees, but for young groves planted within three or four years. Time only can demonstrate the havoc wrought in this direction. Many ludicrous stories are told of the effect of the snowy visitation upon the people and animals of those regions. Denizens of the woodlands came into the towns by scores to report the wonderful sight only to find the panic universal. In the language of a citizen, "It only needed a bob-sled and fur cap on the street to clean out a town and convince the natives that the day of judgment had come." One old lady is credited with having filled a trunk with the "stuff" to keep as a curiosity; and an aged negro awoke the sojourners at a favorite hotel with appeals for them to "Look outen de winder an' see de dreffal heaby frost comin' down in chunks." Horses generally refused to stop from their stables.

THE ICE-BRIDGE AT NIAGARA.

A bridge of solid ice spans the Niagara River at the foot of the Falls, and thousands of people are crossing and recrossing daily in front of the mighty cataract. In only about one season out of five is an ice-bridge formed, and it is this season remarkable for its solidity and picturesque appearance, the border nearest the Falls having formed into an immense mound, while on both sides of the river and on Goat Island the trees, covered with a sparkling foliage of ice formed by the freezing spray from the Falls, present a most brilliant spectacle. Recognizing the fact that thousands of tourists would be charmed to witness a sight of this character, the managers of the Erie Railway have placed on sale at their ticket offices in New York and neighborhood excursion tickets to the Falls, and return, at the moderate price of $15, and as the round trip can be made and everything seen with the loss of but one day's business time, it is expected that many New Yorkers will avail themselves of the opportunity.

"Ten days or ten dollars," said the judge and the prisoner, a sullen-looking fellow, chose the latter alternative, paid the fine and was discharged. He walked moodily out of the courtroom, but when he reached the door turned and showered a wholesale tirade of profane abuse upon the magistrate. Then he ran into the corridor, but before he could reach the street the officers gave chase, he was soon recaptured, and stood again at the bar. "Ten dollars more," said the Court. The money was paid. "If you had used more chaste and refined language," the judge continued, waving the fellow away, "you would not have been chased and refined." The prisoner fell down dead! Dead! my lords and ladies! Dead! right reverends and wrong reverends of every order! Dead! men and women born with heavenly compassion in your breasts—and hundreds are dying thus around us every day from the effects of similar atrocious puns!—[Puck.

Dan Rice, the veteran showman, declares that he regrets four things in his long and eventful life: "1. Learning Miss Adeline Patti to swear when she was a little girl in New Orleans and I was teaching her horseback riding. 2. That I did not, for my country's good, buy up the delegates to the National Convention that nominated Gov. Seymour for President when my representative telegraphed me I could get the nomination for about $80,000. 3. Encouraging little boys in early times to steal under my tent to see the circus. Experience has proved I was morally wrong, from the fact that when they grew up I had to instruct my men to keep a good lookout or they would steal the tent. 4. That I had not followed over forty years ago the advice of John Newland Maffit, a great revivalist, to become a minister of the Gospel instead of a minister of fun."

A young man in Boston received some time ago a bequest of $25,000. He had been poor, and the sudden acquisition of wealth turned his head. He began to spend the money in reckless dissipation, in spite of the efforts of his father to restrain him, and kept on until only $11,000 was left. The father begged that this might be given to him for safe keeping, and the son, being then ill from long drunkenness, and very penitent, readily complied. The father put $10,950 into his pocket and started out to spend the other $50 in a frolic. That night he slept on a bench in a barroom, and in the morning every cent of the money was gone.

Speaking of plumbing, a correspondent writes as follows: "Let every householder purchase 15 cents worth of essence of peppermint and put it into an upstairs water closet, letting the water run for a minute, and then investigate the cellar, and he may be surprised to find, as we did, several defective pipes, and four entirely unprovided with traps or guard of any kind, to prevent the gases from the sewer entering the house. All this after having been assured by one of Boston's "best plumbers" that everything was all right. It took an inspector from the Board of Health to find this out.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes much farther and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; its costs but 2c. a pound, Cream of Tartar over 30c. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere.

INSURANCE

AGAINST LOSS BY FIRE

CAUSED BY

ACCIDENT, INCENDIARISM, LIGHTNING,

Or any Other Cause.

I REPRESENT the oldest company in America, and also the largest company in the United States, together with other standard American and European institutions. The Ætna of Hartford alone has paid over $15,000,000 in losses, and has now $7,000,000 assets in hand.

Insurance in such companies, with ample means, and an established reputation for fair dealing, is worth much more than in any of the numerous weaklings that totter along for a while and then go down. About fifty such companies have failed during the last year, and as many others are on the way to ruin.

The rates in these first-class companies are no higher than in the small and doubtful concerns.

Farm property taken very low for three or five years.

All losses settled at this office. For terms call on, or address by mail the undersigned at the office of this paper. L. D. DAVIS.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

FINCH, ENGS & CO.

BEING DESIROUS of closing their business affairs, earnestly request all persons indebted to them to settle promptly, within the next sixty days. All claims remaining unpaid at the expiration of that time, except those where a special agreement has been made for their extension, will be placed in the hands of their attorneys for collection. nov14-tf

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

By virtue of power of sale, contained in a certain mortgage deed, made and executed on the fifth day of October, A. D. 1874, by Margaret G. Drew of Boston, of the county of Suffolk and commonwealth of Massachusetts, to Lucius D. Davis, which mortgage is recorded with the Land Evidence of Jamestown, in Book No. 7, pages 282 etc., and which was assigned by the said Lucius D. Davis, to the late George Popple, late of Newport, deceased:

I will sell at public auction on the premises in Jamestown, on Saturday, the eight day of February, 1879, at 12 o'clock noon, all of the right, title and interest, which the said Margaret G. Drew, had in and to that certain parcel of land, situate in that part of Jamestown, known as Conanicut Park, being lots numbered (13) thirteen, (14) fourteen and (15) fifteen, on a plat of the said Park, made by John H. Mullin, and on file in the office of the town clerk of the town of Jamestown, with all of the buildings and improvements on the said lots. The condition of said mortgage deed having been broken. The undersigned hereby gives notice to all persons interested in the equity of redemption of the above described premises, that the heirs at law of the said George Popple, or some one of them intend to bid at the sale thereof.
JOHN M. POPPLE,
Administrator of the estate which was of George Popple. jan15

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed, made and executed by Joseph B. Weaver and Abby D. Weaver, his wife, in the right of said Abby D., to Lucius D. Davis, dated October 20, 1873, and recorded in Volume 9, at pages 518 and 519, of the Mortgage Land Evidence of Newport, in the State of Rhode Island, (the condition of said mortgage having been broken) said mortgagee will sell at public auction, on the premises hereinafter described, on Tuesday, February 4th, A. D. 1879, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, all the right, title and interest which said Joseph B. Weaver and Abby D. Weaver had, at the time of the execution of said mortgage, in and to the estate and property hereinafter described to wit, :

That certain lot of land with the buildings and improvements thereon, situated in said Newport, and bounded as follows, to wit.: Northerly, by land now or formerly of L. E. D. Smith, one hundred and twenty-three (123) feet; easterly, by land of Mrs. Goffe, sixty (60) feet; southerly, on the lot occupied by All Saints' Chapel so-called; and westerly, by Cottage Street, sixty (60) feet, be the same more or less, or however otherwise bounded and described. Said mortgagee hereby gives notice that he intends to bid upon said property at said sale thereof.
L. D. DAVIS, Mortgagee.
Newport, Jan. 11, 1879. jan11

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed made and executed by William G. Peckham of Newport, in the State of Rhode Island, (Mary H. Peckham, wife of said William, joining therein in release of her right of dower in the mortgaged premises) to the Savings Bank of Newport, dated February 20, 1869, and recorded in Volume 7 at pages 580 and 581 of the Mortgages, Land Evidence of said Newport, which said mortgage was on the 7th day of December, A. D. 1878, assigned by the said Savings Bank to John N. A. Griswold, of said Newport, the undersigned will sell at public auction on the premises and property hereinafter described, at 12 o'clock noon, on Saturday, January 25th, 1879, the lands and premises hereinafter described and all the right, title and interest which the said William G. Peckham had therein at the time of the execution of the said mortgage, and the inchoate right of dower of the said Mary H. Peckham therein, (the condition of the said mortgage deed having been broken), to-wit.:

"All the following described real estate, to wit.: all and singular the lands and wharves (with all and singular the buildings and improvements thereupon) conveyed to said William G. Peckham, by Charles Devens by deed dated May 1st, 1849, recorded in Volume 27, pages 442, 443 and 444 of the Land Evidence of the City of Newport, in the State of Rhode Island, and by deed dated July 19th, 1853, recorded in Volume 31, pages 183 and 184 of said Land Evidence, and by Benjamin G. Hunt by deed dated October 18, 1867, recorded in Volume 34, pages 52 and 53 of said Land Evidence and by Nathan M. Chaffee, by deed dated February 16th, 1865, recorded in Volume 33, pages 331 and 332 of said Land Evidence, all which deeds are hereby referred to and made a part hereof for more particular description of said granted premises."

And the undersigned hereby gives notice to said William G. Peckham, to Mary Ann Peckham (the supposed holder of a second mortgage on the said premises or a part thereof) and to all others interested that he intends to bid at said sale, upon the lands and premises herein advertised for sale.

If there is anything more cheering than to hear the barber shout "Next," it is to hear the preacher say "Finally" in an extremely long sermon.—[Danielsonville Sentinel.

"What's your occupation?" asked a visitor at the Capitol of a bright boy whom he met in the corridor. The boy happened to be a page in the House. "I'm running for Congress," was the reply.

Hostess [whispering to distinguished amateur]—"I want you to sing next." Distinguished amateur [whose voice is not quite what it used to be]—"I thought I wasn't to sing till quite the end." Hostess—"Yes—but there are not ices enough, and I want some of the people to go."—[Punch.

A RESOLUTE OLD LADY.

A noted toy store kept open till twelve on Christmas Eve. Among the latest comers there was a very old and aristocratic-looking lady and a younger one and a servant girl. They bought and bought, but others were doing the same or had made purchases earlier, which must be delivered. The wagons were loaded, the porters were laden. This party of three were plied to their eyes, when grandma spied a basket-horse, a machine made of papier mache, with dangling legs outside the gaily caparisoned animal, into which a youngster gets and prances about like a knight on horseback. "It's impossible to send that home to-night, madame," said the shopman. "Very well; I'll take it myself," said the resolute woman. Depositing her bundles for a moment, she put the straps over her shoulder, mounted the great gay thing on her back, and away went the party in much glee, the old lady of eighty as merry as a child. We could hear her peals of laughter as, passing some homeward bound group, a small boy in his father's arms, shouted; "Oh, look! that's Santa Claus, papa! a likeness that struck us all—the big sealskin cloak, the gray, curling locks blowing about the merry, red face, the multitude of packages in front, and the basket horse, with its crimson flounce, piled upon her back behind.—[Boston Courier.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER!
FOR WOMEN & CHILDREN.
Females suffering from pain and weakness will derive great comfort and strength from the use of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster. Where children are afflicted with whooping cough, ordinary coughs or colds or weak lungs, it is the one and only treatment they should receive. This article contains new medicinal elements such as is found in no other remedy in the same form. It is far superior to common porous plasters, liniments, electrical appliances and other external remedies. It relieves pain at once, strengthens and cures where other plasters will not even relieve. For Lame and Weak Back, Rheumatism, Kidney disease and all local aches and pains it is also the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Plaster and take no other. Sold by all druggists. Price 25c. jl4-4w

DO YOU VALUE HEALTH?
If so avoid the unhealthy and dangerous compounds with which the market is flooded and use only the wonderful
CZAR BAKING POWDER.
The purest, healthiest, strongest and best Baking or Yeast Powder in the world. Read what Prof. S. W. Johnson of Sheffield Scientific School, Yale College, has to say of the purity and healthfulness of the Czar Baking Powder.
New Haven, November 22, 1873.
Messrs. Steele & Emery:
Gentlemen:—I have made a careful chemical examination of the Czar Baking Powder, and find it composed only of wholesome materials: It contains no alum, no phosphate of lime, nor any deleterious substances.
S. W. JOHNSON,
Professor of Chemistry, Yale College.
Manufactured by STEELE & EMERY, New Haven, Conn. Ask your grocer for the Czar Baking Powder, and take no other kind. d30-4w

PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
No. 76 State St., opp. Kilby St., Boston,
Secures patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions. R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them as early and favorable consideration at the patent office.
EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents."
BOSTON, October 19, 1870.
R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly,
GEORGE DRAPER.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
Great Through Line
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE.

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

CONSTRUCTION AND EQUIPMENT
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrate the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM of SAFETY SIGNALS,
Janney Coupler Buffer and Platform,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

PULLMAN PALACE CARS
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis, WITHOUT CHANGE
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty, and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A Pleasing and Memorable Experience.
